A castle in the mist, a yearning heart, and a lonely train ride all teach Christy that A Promise Is Forever

Off on a European mission trip with her friends, Christy Miller discovers foreign adventure is her cup of tea. She can just see herself tromping through the streets of London, traveling across different countries, and talking to new people, like her new friend Sierra Jensen. But when tensions among the group set in, Christy finds memories of Todd, her past boyfriend, are constantly swimming in her mind no matter how hard she tries to delete him from her mind!

To make matters worse, she is assigned to go to Spain by herself while all her friends travel elsewhere. Will Christy face her fears of the future? And can she truly trust that God has great things planned for her even when all seems lost?

OVER ONE MILLION SOLD IN The Christy Miller Series
