Many books have been written about kayaking and others about fishing but this book focuses on fishing from a kayak on freshwater and inshore saltwater in southwest Florida. It is a guide for visiting anglers who are new to kayak fishing, yet has useful information for those who are experienced and want to find new places to explore. This handy waterproof, pocket sized guide for kayak anglers includes detailed maps and aerial photos of our favorite launch areas here in southwest Florida. Basic tackle guidelines and tips from your guides show you what rigs to use and how to catch quality fish from your personal or rental kayak, canoe or SUP. Now you can have a great day kayak fishing in Southwest Florida. Reviews: "During our 21 years in business we have seen many kayak and fishing guide books. This is easily the most comprehensive, informative guide book we have seen for our area. It's not only a kayak fishing guide book, but also an excellent resource for all paddlers." Silent Sports Outfitter "Les and Kimball Beery have hit another home run with this book. Not only have they shared their excellent angling knowledge, but they give you satellite and street level views of kayak launch spots, tips on how to fish them and even where to launch under different wind conditions. They cover it all, right down to rigging your kayak and tackle. This book is a must have for anyone getting into the sport of kayak angling." Capt. Rick Grassett, Snook Fin-Addict Guide Service
