Bad Company Joanne Hichens

This is a collection you'll want to take to bed with you – for suspense, intrigue, mystery and thrills you can't beat Bad Company. From the bustling streets of Joburg to the alleyways of Khayelitsha, from the boardroom to the bedroom, Bad Company will entertain you and keep you enthralled till you turn out the light. Not only is this collection a feast for lovers of thriller fiction, but it's a perfect introduction to South African thriller writing for the uninitiated. From the intensity and force of Richard Kunzmann's 'If Nothing Else' to the subtle mind games of Andrew Brown's 'Occam's Razor', there is variety to cater for all tastes. With stories by South Africa's renowned writers Deon Meyer and Margie Orford, as well as newer voices, and a first-ever English thriller story by bestselling Zulu crime thriller writer Meshack Masondo, a great read is guaranteed.
