Kiss of Fate: The Mistresses of Fate, Book Three Deirdre Dore

In the bestselling tradition of Laura Griffin, the conclusion in a new romantic suspense trilogy features an officer with the Atlanta Police Department who teams up with a documentary filmmaker to delve into one of the darkest secrets of Fate, a secret that involves everyone she has ever loved.

Christina, Tavey, and Raquel have been haunted for decades by the death of their best childhood friend—a crime that remains unsolved. Decades later, all three are still anchored in their small hometown of Fate, Georgia, and obsessed with discovering what happened to their friend so many years ago...

Raquel Weaver is a member of Atlanta PD's sex crimes task force, a dedicated hunter of child abusers, and the daughter of a famous blues singer with a history of scandal. Raquel tries to avoid the limelight, partially because of Brent Burns, an award-winning documentary filmmaker, who made her private pain public knowledge. But when comes to her asking for help revealing a connection between her missing friend and his own sister, she puts aside her resentment and works with him to tie together the threads of love, greed, and desperation that led to the loss of her best friend, and teaches her to trust again.

As a scholar exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or make a summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just small students that have reading's soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the teacher wants, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. A book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country.
