Pillows for Your Prison Cell Mark D. Bullard

Long ago in a distant land, a king built a windowless prison with walls that reached to the sky. It was called The Mill and none who entered ever departed. In that land there was a boy named Amir. And, on his father's birthday, in an act of desperation, he committed a crime and was sentenced to the infamous Mill. Once inside, he discovers the truth about why no one ever gets out. But knowing the truth is only half the battle... Anyone who has ever felt trapped by choices in their lives will relate to Amir's story and cheer him on in his struggle to escape.
