Justin Graham thought he could stomach the life that his wealthy, self-centered wife had created for him, until he realized he was living it inside of a scotch bottle. Having had enough of the lie and Anastasia's controlling ways, he packs up his bags and moves out. Finally free from the drama, Justin braces himself for the fallout; fallout he thinks he can handle--until the first murder attempt. Alfra-Jean Wilson has found the man of her dreams, handsome and wealthy Evan Bennett. Life is going her way, until her ex-husband shows up on her doorstep, looking for a second chance. After rebuffing Nicolas' tainted plea to get back together, Jean and Evan soon put him out of their minds, until a series of "accidents" make her soon to be husband question her safety. Dani Sinclair thought she was happy with her soul mate, Devin Powers, until he asks her to marry him. Hiding a horrific secret, she turns him down and flees to another country to clear her head, only to meet a man whom she could give more than words.
