My Song (and Other Poems) Orok Otu Duke

A tree is known by its fruit, not the roots. In the Efik communities, we sing and dance when we are happy and when we are sad. There are seasonal, celebratory, occupational and occasional songs and dances, reflecting the whole gamut of existence as appreciated within our cosmology. It is also through these songs and dances that we preserve, enhance, reflect, consolidate and propagate our feelings and way of life. Our culture. My Song (And other Poems) is Orok Otu Duke's latest collection of anecdotal poems. It is a kaleidoscope of emotions. Be my guest, please.

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or even make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's internal or real their passion. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this My Song (and Other Poems) can make you truly feel more interested to read.
