Peace came to Bosnia-Herzegovina when according to many on the ground, there was no hope. According to insiders, throughout four years of war in Bosnia, no one from the outside had come to join local believers in praying for peace. Then a global prayer initiative linked thousands of prayer warriors around the world in a combined effort aimed at bringing peace and reconciliation. For other such conflicts around the globe, this book proposes a rapid-response expeditionary force of prayer leaders who can be moved into crisis situations.
