God's grace is a mystery, partially revealed through salvation, and increasing in the life of the committed Christian. It is unmeasured, unending, and undeserved. But do we really know what we have when God's grace is showered on us?

The Promises of Grace offers a clear and thorough look at the beauty of grace and all it brings to believers--not physical prosperity but spiritual blessing. Bryan Chapell focuses on the promises you can expect God to fulfill--assurance of God's love, peace of conscience, joy in the Holy Spirit, power in prayer, and perseverance in trial--through a study of Romans 8.

Broken down into eleven group or personal studies and illustrated by life stories, The Promises of Grace will help you discover what it means to live in the grip of God's love. Understanding the genuine benefits of his grace leads to a life that is "more satisfying and less selfish, more fulfilling and less driven, more peaceful and less guilt ridden."
