Isis X

Anthology of twelve South African women poets and three women photographers.

Riana Wiechers introduces herself as a Language practitioner and her poetry demonstrates her artistry with words in two languages. She bounces English and Afrikaans sounds off each other, incorporates the spaces between her lines, her words, the letters even, to create poems that piqued my sense of fun and drew me along with them.

Sometimes into not-such-fun places.

One section of isis x is devoted to a number of poems in Zulu, accompanied by the English translations on the facing pages. They gave me some tantalising sense of a rich poetic genre far removed from the western ones with which I am more familiar, and Bongekile Mbanjwa's work has renewed my resolve to learn another of this country's languages – and reminds me of the cultural treasure trove that awaits me once I have. –Moira Richards
