[BookStrand Contemporary Romantic Suspense, HEA] Chemist Alina Runesson lives in Sweden under the government's witness protection program. Her look-alike cousin is imprisoned in Baghdad and her fiancé was killed saving Alina from the same fate. She cannot love a man because he will die for her, but she needs help to rescue her cousin. CIA Agent Vic Grant escapes to Sweden to correct the illegal orders of his boss. Vic plans to recover his agents left by the US to be buried with their assignments. Sometimes the bad guy has to be killed along the way. His life is not made for relationships. Vic and Alina meet by chance and align their missions. Tension, frustration, and sparks of passion guide Vic and Alina as they execute their personal goals. Their itinerary is repeatedly changed according to assaults by double agents and terrorists. He kills, she kills, and bodies are left on the side. They have a connection called love and have to trust it's not fatal. A BookStrand Mainstream Romance
