The Disposable Male: Sex, Love, and Money-Your World Through Darwin's Eyes Michael Gilbert

An entertaining, informative, and original look at how we humans got here and why we behave the way we do, this text wraps responsible science in a potent and absorbing package, developing original conclusions that challenge conventional thinking. Shining a revealing light on the plight of modern masculinity and the origins of contemporary female priorities, it celebrates the authentically feminine and offers a timely message of reconciliation between the modern sexes. Irreverent, funny, and thought-provoking, this commentary aims at a broad audience and digs deeper than typical relationship books, providing fresh, penetrating insights and valuable tools for dealing with the issues that matter so much in our hectic, contemporary lives.
