Charles Gavin, Paulinho da Viola, Monarco

A íntegra das entrevistas de Paulinho da Viola e Monarco para Charles Gavin, no episódio de Som do Vinil dedicado ao antológico disco "Nervos de aço", de 1973.

"Um samba diferente, com um quê de experimentação, feito a partir de um ostinato (frase que se repete seguidamente ao longo da composição), tocado no violão com acompanhamento nada convencional dos metais e do piano. Era a primeira vez que eu via Paulinho da Viola e sua banda ao vivo e aquele samba me chamou a atenção dentro do repertório repleto de clássicos. Passei o show todo me perguntando que música era aquela. Mais tarde, no camarim, com a elegância que lhe é peculiar, Paulinho me disse: 'esta é uma composição minha e chama-se 'Roendo as unhas'. Foi uma experiência que fiz na época, acabou ficando desse jeito. Pertence a um disco meu dos anos 70, muito importante pra mim, chamado Nervos de Aço'".
