written, photographed, and illustrated by Lester Walker. He is an award-winning architect, a partner in the architectural firm of Studio Works, and a widely published writer. "This book is for kids who would like to build things but aren't sure exactly how to get started, or even what to do. Carpentry for Children begins by telling you the tools you should have and how to use them. After Lester Walker, the author, explains how you build a workbench, a toolbox, and sawhorses, and arrange a working area, he describes eleven projects to build."
